Benjamin Akintunde Akinmoyeje

Has experience in ICT4D practice for more than 10 years in Nigeria and West Africa. His involvement with Internet Governance was at the inaugural Africa School of Internet Governance in 2013 in Durban. Thereafter, he participated in his first ICANN meeting, ICANN47.

He is an ICANN fellow and Afrinic Fellow. Also a member of the Non-Commercial User Constituency (NCUC), AfrICANN group, a member of Local Multistakeholder Advisory Group (LMAG) for Nigeria Internet Governance Forum, presently I am the West Africa Coordinator of ICT4SI (ict4si.org) a SPIDER (Swedish Program for ICT in Developing Regions) and iHub initiative. Just got elected as NCUC EC Africa rep for 2020.

Research interests include mHealth, Persuasive Technologies for mHealth, opensource, opendata, and ICT for social innovation.

Currently a Research student at the Department of Informatics, Namibia University of Science and Technology as a DAAD scholar.

He loves traveling and Photography.